Updates on Gurjar Aandolan

Feb 09, 2019 | 8:50 AM

Hereby all the concerned persons and authorities are informed that the executive committee of Invincible NGO has made the below mentioned decisions/guidelines considering the Gurjar Aandolan updates from Rajasthan.

1. Looking at the participation, new Camp Managers are appointed to tackle the situations, if any. He will take care of safety of all the participants during travel and camping. However, the organization or the camp manager is not responsible for any damage, injury or any other kind of loss if that happens due to Gurjar Aandolan and its consequences.
2. If some of the participants wish to terminate their participation, they can mail their cancellation request on info@invinciblengo.org As all the advanced bookings are done, Invincible NGO will try best to refund maximum amount to applicants. (Please do not expect full refund, that is not practically possible for Invincible)
3. A helpline for participants is set for next 72 hours to deal with any consequences. Helpline No would be 85 80 80 81 41 (24 hrs).
4. The updates are applicable for camps departing on 9th & 10th only, the concerned persons and authorities are directed to keep visiting invinciblengo.org for latest updates.
